MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHAIRMAN, INTELLIGENCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Subject: Dissemination of National Intelligence Estimates

Reference is made to your memorandum of July 13, 1957, advising that the members of the Intelligence Advisory Committee (IAC) concurred in the substance and purpose of the proposal by the S-DMICC with respect to broadening the present distribution of United States intelligence [redacted] My memorandum of April 23, 1957, (MIC-43-57) suggested that, as a means of effecting an arrangement to permit such wider dissemination, a stamp could be used on United States intelligence documents [redacted]

[redacted]

I have, therefore, advised the Members of the S-DMICC that releases of intelligence information by the military departments to [redacted] should bear the above-mentioned stamp commencing on January 1, 1958.

You may wish to advise the Agencies-Member of the IAC that releases [redacted] of National Intelligence Estimates or of other U.S. intelligence information should bear the above-mentioned stamp, commencing, if possible, on or about January 1, 1958, in order to permit appropriate dissemination [redacted]
